(5) A notice that the bank's or trust company's ability to make transactions described in subsection (a) ends upon receipt at any time of a notice of objection by a majority of the persons entitled to receive statements of account activity.

(c) The following apply to a purchase or sale under subsection (a):

(1) Except as provided in subdivisions (2) and (3), if the fiduciary relationship is a trust or an agency, the trustee or agent shall treat the purchase or sale under subsection (a) as if it were a conflict of interest transaction under IC 30-4-3-5 and shall give any notice and obtain any consent that may be required under IC 30-4-3-5, subject to the following:

(A) IC 30-2-14-16 applies to any notice required to be given by a trustee or an agent under this subdivision, subject to the following:

If the representative of the incapacitated grantor is the bank or trust company that seeks the consent to a purchase or sale under subsection (a), the trustee shall obtain consent from the court.

(ii) If the fiduciary relationship is a revocable trust and the assets of the revocable trust are distributable to one (1) or more other trusts, notice shall be given to the trustees of the other trusts. However, if the bank or trust company that seeks the consent to a purchase or sale under subsection (a) is the trustee of another trust to which the assets of the revocable trust are distributable, the bank or trust company shall give notice to those beneficiaries of the other trust who are entitled to receive statements of account activity from the bank or trust company.

(iii) If the fiduciary relationship is an agency, the principal must consent to the purchase or sale under subsection (a) in writing in advance of the transaction. The principal shall be considered to have all income and principal interests in the account at the time the notice of the proposed transaction is given. If the principal is incapacitated, consent must be obtained from the principal's court appointed guardian, unless the guardian of the incapacitated principal is the bank or trust company that seeks the consent. (2) Any consent granted under subdivision (1)(B)(i) may be revoked by a writing signed by a majority of the persons entitled to notice under IC 30-2-14-16, as modified by subdivision (1)(A). However, the revocation must be signed by:

(A) at least one (1) beneficiary who is receiving income under the trust at the time the revocation is signed; and

(B) at least one (1) individual who would receive a distribution of principal if the trust were terminated at the time the revocation is signed.

(3) The notice and consent otherwise required under subdivision (1) are not required if the purchase or sale under subsection (a) is specifically authorized:

(A) in the document creating the fiduciary relationship; or at least one (1) beneficiary who is receiving income under the trust at the time of the notice and at least one (1) individual who would receive a distribution of principal if the trust were terminated at the time notice is given.

(B) under IC 30-4-3-7.

(ii) Upon obtaining the written consents required under item (i), the trustee need not wait until the period to make written objections under IC 30-2-14-16 ends, in order to take the proposed action.

(2) Any consent granted under subdivision (1)(B)(i) may be revoked by a writing signed by a majority of the persons entitled to notice under IC 30-2-14-16, as modified by subdivision (1)(A). However, the revocation must be signed by:

(A) at least one (1) beneficiary who is receiving income under the trust at the time the revocation is signed; and

(2) not to purchase or participate in the purchase of trust property from the trust for the trustee's own or an affiliate's account;

(3) not to sell or participate in the sale of the trustee's own or an affiliate's property to the trust; or

(4) if a corporate trustee, not to purchase for or retain in the trust its own or a parent or subsidiary corporation's stock, bonds, or other capital securities. However, the trustee may retain such securities already held in trusts created prior to September 2, 1971.

(b) Unless the terms of the trust provide otherwise, a corporate trustee may invest in, purchase for, or retain in the trust its own or an affiliate's obligations, including savings accounts and certificates of deposit, without the investment, purchase, or retention constituting a conflict of interest under section 5 of this chapter.

(c) Unless the terms of the trust provide otherwise, a corporate trustee does not violate subsection (a) by investing in, purchasing for, or retaining in the trust its own or an affiliate's obligations, including savings accounts and certificates of deposit, if the payment of each obligation is fully insured by the Bank Insurance Fund or the Savings Association Insurance Fund of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, or any insurer approved by the department of financial institutions under IC 28-7-1-31.5.

(d) If the terms of the trust permit the trustee to deal with a beneficiary for the trustee's own account, the trustee has a duty to deal fairly with and to disclose to the beneficiary all material facts related to the transaction which the trustee knows or should know.

(e) Unless the terms of the trust provide otherwise, the trustee may sell, exchange, or participate in the sale or exchange of trust property from one (1) trust to ~~himself~~ the trustee as trustee of another trust, provided the sale or exchange is fair and reasonable with respect to the beneficiaries of both trusts and the trustee discloses to the beneficiaries of both trusts all material facts related to the sale or exchange which the trustee knows or should know.

(f) This section does not prohibit a trustee from enforcing or fulfilling any enforceable contract or agreement:

- (1) executed during the settlor's lifetime; and
- (2) between the settlor and the trustee in the trustee's individual capacity.

SECTION 4. IC 30-4-3-11 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2007]: Sec. 11. (~~Liability of the Trustee to the Beneficiary~~) (a) The trustee is accountable to the beneficiary for the trust estate.

(b) If the trustee commits a breach of trust, he is liable to the beneficiary for:

- (1) any loss or depreciation in the value of the trust property as a result of the breach;
- (2) any profit made by the trustee through the breach;
- (3) any reasonable profit which would have accrued on the trust property in the absence of a breach; and
- (4) reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the beneficiary in bringing an action on the breach.

(c) In the absence of a breach of trust, the trustee has no liability to the beneficiary either for any loss or depreciation in value of the trust property or for a failure to make a profit. However, if:

- (1) a loss or depreciation in value of the trust property; or
- (2) the trust's failure to make a profit;

is the result of a violation by the trustee of IC 28-1-12-8 or IC 28-6.1-6-26, one (1) or more beneficiaries of the trust may petition the court for any remedy described in subsection (b) or for removal of the trustee under section 22(a)(4) of this chapter, regardless of whether the transaction under IC 28-1-12-8 or IC 28-6.1-6-26 constitutes or involves a breach of trust. The court may award one (1) or more remedies described in subsection (b) or remove the trustee, or both, if the court determines that the remedy or removal of the trustee is in the best interests of all beneficiaries of the trust. The burden of proof is on the one (1) or more petitioning beneficiaries to demonstrate that the remedy or removal of the trustee is in the best interests of all beneficiaries of the trust.

(d) The trustee is liable to the beneficiary for acts of an agent which, if committed by the trustee, would be a breach of the trust if ~~he~~ the trustee:

- (1) directs or permits the act of the agent;
- (2) delegates the authority to perform an act to the agent which he is under a duty not to delegate;
- (3) fails to use reasonable care in the selection or retention of the agent;
- (4) fails to exercise proper supervision over the conduct of the agent;
- (5) approves, acquiesces in or conceals the act of the agent; or
- (6) fails to use reasonable effort to compel the agent to reimburse the trust estate for any loss or to account to the trust estate for any profit.

SECTION 5. IC 30-4-4-5, AS ADDED BY P.L.238-2005, SECTION 41, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2007]: Sec. 5. - (1) That the trust exists and the date the trust instrument was executed.
- (2) The identity of the settlor.
- (3) The identity and address of the currently acting trustee.
- (4) The powers of the trustee.
- (5) The revocability or irrevocability of the trust and the identity of any person holding a power to revoke the trust.

~~(7) The trust's taxpayer identification number.~~

~~(8)~~ (7) The manner of taking title to trust property.

(b) A certification of trust may be signed or authenticated by any trustee.

(c) A certification of trust must state that the trust has not been revoked, modified, or amended in any manner that would cause the representations contained in the certification of trust to be incorrect.

(d) A certification of trust may contain the dispositive terms of a trust.

(e) A recipient of a certification of trust may require the trustee to furnish copies of excerpts from the original trust instrument and later amendments that:

- (1) designate the trustee; and
- (2) confer on the trustee the power to act in a pending transaction in which the recipient has an interest.

(f) A person who acts in reliance on a certification of trust without knowledge that the representations contained in the certification of trust are incorrect:

- (1) is not liable to any person for acting in reliance on the certification of trust; and
- (2) may assume without inquiry the existence of the facts contained in the certification of trust.

Knowledge of the terms of the trust may not be inferred solely from the fact that a copy of all or part of the trust instrument is held by the person relying on the certification.

(g) A person who in good faith enters into a transaction in reliance on a certification of trust may enforce the transaction against the trust property as if the representations contained in the certification were correct.

(h) A person making a demand for the trust instrument in addition to a certification of trust or excerpts from the original trust instrument is liable for damages if the court determines that a person did not act in good faith in demanding the trust instrument.

(i) This section does not limit the right of a person to obtain a copy of the trust instrument in a judicial proceeding concerning the trust.
